

THE MINI MUSKETEERS™

THE MINI MUSKETEERS™ follows the adventures of REMI, LEO, PIERRE and AIMEE, four fearless, adventurous preschoolers who are the nieces and nephews of their famous uncles – D’Artagnan and The Three Musketeers! Our heroes are training to become members of the legendary Mousquetaires de la garde – the elite group that serves and protects the French King, KING LOUIS XIV. But when we first meet King Louis, he is in fact a timid little six-year-old who is so shy that it is hard to imagine how he will ever become brave enough, wise enough, and confident enough, to rule one of the largest empires in the world. King Louis is isolated because of his position, doted on by his widowed mother QUEEN ANNE, coddled by the courtiers, and spoiled by the palace staff. It is clear that Louis has a lot to learn on his journey as King of France. Fortunately, MONSIEUR DE TREVILLE invites the little King to learn with the Mini Musketeers at the Treville Estate. There we meet Monsieur De Treville’s granddaughter MILLIE who is learning to become a teacher, just like her respected grandfather. Together the preschoolers learn skills from D’Artagnan and The Three Musketeers that will help them grow into the best King, Musketeers, and Teacher of all of France! Plus they get something they truly need – a group of friends to call their own. “All for one and one for all!”
